

Critical Illness Insurance

More Serious Than You Think

No one likes to think about getting sick. However, life's full of unexpected moments. Would you be prepared if a serious illness happened? Would you be able to pay your household bills if you could not work due to a critical illness? Atlantic American Employee Benefits' products integrate with, and supplement benefits already available to you; such as major medical, covering everyday expenses, deductibles, co-pays, and co-insurance.

someone dies of
cardiovascular disease
(CVD) in the U.S.<sup>1</sup>

cause of death for women is cardiovascular disease, causing 1 in 3
deaths each year.<sup>2</sup>

of adults were either unable to pay their monthly bills or were one $400 financial setback away from being unable to pay them in full.<sup>3</sup>

795,000+

795,000+ U.S. adults have a stroke each year,
with around 185,000 of these affected individuals having had a previous stroke.<sup>4</sup>

A photograph of a woman with dark, curly hair wearing blue medical scrubs, smiling and standing behind an older man with glasses who is also smiling. The background is a solid light green color with faint, repeating text that reads "Critical Illness Insurance".

A photograph of a woman with dark curly hair, wearing blue scrubs, standing behind a man with grey hair and glasses. The man is wearing a grey button-down shirt over a green t-shirt and is seated. Both are smiling. The background is a solid green color with the word 'Balance' repeated in a light green, sans-serif font. On the left side of the image, there is a vertical white bar containing the text 'able', 'y', and 'e.' stacked vertically.

63% of cancer patients & loved ones reported financial struggles following a cancer diagnosis.<sup>5</sup>

Visit aaemployeebenefits.com for more information.

<sup>6</sup> <https://bit.ly/3iiVag2> – Kaiser Family Foundation; Data Note: Americans' Challenges with Health Care Costs

ATLANTIC AMERICAN
Employee Benefits

aaemployeebenefits.com

AAEB GCIP21 MKT IG22 1424 GCI