A Guide for Successfully Completing the Group Hospital Indemnity Claim Form

Atlantic American Employee Benefits appreciates the opportunity to provide you with valuable protection. We rely on the information you provide on this form to effectively determine if you qualify for benefits.

This guide provides information and instruction to help you successfully complete and submit the claim form. You may also submit the claim online for a more expedited experience. Please consult your employer/benefits administrator if you need assistance in providing information for the form.

What You Need to File a Claim

- Claim Form
- Authorization to Release Personal Information
- Attending Physician Statement
- Proof of services (some examples below):
  - Emergency room, physician or urgent care report
  - Operative/surgical report
  - Scan/imaging report for major diagnostic imaging
  - HCFA 1500 (itemized non-hospital bill)/UB04 (itemized hospital bill)
  - Physician office notes

Guidelines for Claim Form

Section 1 – Employee Information

This section is to be completed by you, the Employee. Dates should include the month, day and year. In order to be considered complete, the form must be signed by you.

- Policy number will consist of ten digits which will come after “005”
- Job Title is the title of your position held with the Employer.
- The Hours Worked per Week is the number of hours you worked per week for the Employer.

Section 2 – Hospital/Physician Information

- Admission Date is the first day you were admitted as an inpatient to the facility.
- Discharge Date is the day you were discharged as an inpatient from the facility.
- Initial Date of Treatment is the date you first sought medical care because of the accident/injury/condition.
- Medical records from your providers may be needed in order to make a determination on your claim. A completed authorization form will be needed to obtain them. To avoid any additional delays in the claim, please be sure to complete and submit the authorization forms with your claim application.

Section 3 – Hospital Indemnity Claim

- Admission Date – your status as a patient in the hospital is based on the level of care you need. Admission Date is the first day you were admitted as an inpatient to the facility.
    a) You're an inpatient starting when you are formally admitted to a hospital with a doctor's order.
    b) You're an outpatient if you're getting emergency department services, observation services, outpatient surgery, lab tests, X-rays, or any other hospital services, and the doctor hasn't written an order to admit you to a hospital as an inpatient. In these cases, you're an outpatient even if you spend the night at the hospital.

Payment Method

- If no payment method is selected, a check will be mailed.

Authorization to Disclose Personal Information

This authorization is to be completed by you, the Employee. Dates should include the month, day and year. In order to be considered complete, the form must be signed by you or your legal representative.

- Medical records from your providers may be needed in order to make a determination on your claim. A completed authorization form will be needed to obtain them. To avoid any additional delays in the claim, please be sure to complete and submit the authorization forms with your claim application.
- If the name on any of your medical records differs from the name provided on the form, provide any alternate names. This might occur in the event of a name change due to marriage or adoption.

Guidelines for Attending Physician Statement

This section is to be completed by the Attending Physician. Dates should include the month, day and year. In order to be considered complete, the form must be signed by the Attending Physician.
